and the bird who sings her song

F G
ah-ah-ah-ahhhh...

C
just for you

this night is falling fast landing now coming to rest just like you in your cozy bed lay down my dear
your weary head

it's time for sleep now find a dream you know how trust the moon
to guide you there
full or new
just like you
and everything true
moon's always there

day will come
sun will rise
you will open
up your eyes
always there
inside you
singing a song
