

THE REMINDER

A A/D
you are the sky

A A/D
you are the mountain

A A/D
you are the water

A A/D
you are the fountain

A A/D
you are the moonlit

A A/D
meadow moss under my

A A/D A A/D ... toes

you are the bloom
you are the butterfly
you are the sundown
you are the morning light you are the proof
that something inside of us knows

you are the moon
you are tides turning
you are the galaxies
you are stars twirling
you are the road
everything comes, then it goes

you are the nugget
right at the heart of things you are this moment
empty of everything
you are the song

A A/G A A/D... that rises up...and forever grows on and on and on and on and on...

you are the wind
you are falling leaves
you are the soul that shines you are the heart that grieves you are the raindrop
you are the ocean
you are the magic words
you are the potion
you are the message
speaking through everything you are the sage who smiles you are the child who sings on and on and on and on and on...
